

The Central Florida Anthropological Society
founded 1963

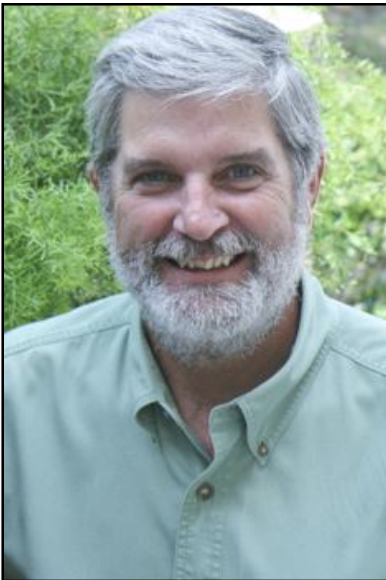

P.O. Box 947544 Maitland, FL 32794-7544

Join us for our monthly meetings held on the Second Thursday of every month
7 pm at Leu Gardens
1920 N Forest Ave
Orlando, FL 32803-1537

Meetings are free and open to the public! We provide an informative meeting place for the student of anthropology as well as the interested public.

Join us on November 11th for the presentation of:

“William Bartram, Florida Archaeologist”

Our November presenter will be Dr. Brent Weisman. Dr. Weisman is a professor and chair of the Department of Anthropology at the University of South Florida. He has been active in Florida archaeology for many years and his presentation will focus on what archaeologists can learn from William Bartram's accounts of his travels through Central Florida in the late 1700s.

For more information:

Kevin Gidusko 321-948-3994 or
kagidusko@hotmail.com

Gregg Harding 407-401-4663 or gregg.harding@myfloridahistory.org

TWO WEBSITES TO CHECK OUT

Here's the link to the article from the Orlando Sentinel that mentioned our work at the Hartsfield House in Oakland:

<http://www.orlandosentinel.com/news/local/orange/os-oakland-anthropological--dig-20101016,0,5402680.story>

Florida Trail of Indian Heritage Website: <http://www.trailoffloridasindianheritage.org>

OTHER EVENTS OF INTEREST

11/5-6 (10 am-10 pm) & 11/7 (10 am-5 pm): Central Florida Fairgrounds, Orlando. The 24th annual American Indian Association Orlando Powwow will feature arts and crafts, entertainment, demonstrations, dancing and food. $6 for adults; $3 for children 12 or younger and seniors. For more information please call 407-327-8207.

11/12 (7 pm): Dr. Michele Williams, Regional Director, South East Region of FPAN, will speak on "Digging Deeper in the Dry Tortugas" at the Florida Historical Society Library, 435 Brevard Ave., Cocoa. The Dry Tortugas National Park is located 70 miles west of Key West and it is home to Fort Jefferson. Today the Park is best known as a great place for birding or snorkeling but at one time it was known for its military might. Dr. Williams' talk will include a brief history of Dry Tortugas National Park and discuss the recent excavations of the parade grounds within the Fort's massive walls. Free. For more information, please call 321-690-1971, ext. 223.

CENTRAL FLORIDA ANTHROPOLOGICAL SOCIETY

Post Office Box 947544

Maitland, Florida 32794